The screenshot shows a web application interface for a university. The top part displays student information: Student, SAB Chair (prof. JUDr. Jan Kuklík, DrSc.), Supervisor (prof. JUDr. Monika Pauknerová, CSc., DSc.), and Advisor. Below this is the 'Status of plan (ID: "17388")' section, which includes details like Responsibility (student), Previous responsibility (-), Change date (14.10.2019 14:35), and various commentaries. A section titled 'Edit the duty' contains a warning and a form for selecting a course. The form includes fields for Course code, Academic year, and Semester, with radio buttons for 'none', 'winter', 'summer', and 'both'. A 'Save' button and a 'Do NOT save and go back' button are also present. To the right, a search window titled 'Searching:Course code' is open, showing a search for 'HD' in the 'Faculty of Law' department. Below the search window is a table of courses with columns for Code, Name, and Department. Red arrows and text annotations indicate the following steps: 1. step: selecting the course code; 2. step: entering 'HD' in the search field; 3. step: selecting the course (HD112 - Legal English); 4. step: selecting the years and semester in which you will complete the course.
