Dear Friends and Colleagues,

In reference to the documents sent on September 1 about the Weidenfeld Scholarships and Leadership Programme at the University of Oxford, please accept my apologies for the mistake in the below text - The correct email address is 'info@strategicdialogue.org'. Please forward this updated version of the text to your contacts. I am once again attaching the documents containing further information about the Scholarship Programme and application process.

Kind regards,

Anna Schiller

Dear Friends and Colleagues,

The Weidenfeld Scholarships and Leadership Programme is expected to support around 40 Scholars in the 2011-2012 academic year. This Programme, launched in May 2007, offers outstanding postgraduate students and young professionals support for graduate studies at the University of Oxford complemented by a comprehensive leadership development programme. In its first phase this programme has primarily supported scholars from Eastern Europe, Russia, Central Asia, North Africa and the Middle East. We are delighted to have more recently expanded to include scholars from India from October 2010.

In seeking to cultivate leaders of the future, the Programme selects students and young professionals with clear leadership potential, and a demonstrated commitment to contributing to public life. It offers them the unique opportunity to:

- Pursue fully funded graduate studies at the University of Oxford with no restriction as to the chosen academic field; and
- Participate in a comprehensive leadership programme providing them with:
  - The knowledge and skills needed to contribute to public life in, and play a transformational role in the development of, their countries and regions of origin;
  - Lasting professional networks across cultures and continents to be drawn on throughout their post-university careers.

We are asking friends and colleagues around the world to circulate the attached information to relevant professional networks to increase awareness about this Scholarship Programme and widen the pool of eligible candidates for the next academic year.

As with other scholarships, candidates need to apply through the official University of Oxford application process by mid JANUARY, 2011. Application documents for the 2011-12 academic year will be available from September 2010 onwards. Interested candidates must be accepted by Oxford before being considered for a Weidenfeld Scholarship.

Information about the programme is also available on the Institute for Strategic Dialogue website www.strategicdialogue.org.

Should you require any further information about the Weidenfeld Scholarships and Leadership Programme, please do not hesitate to contact the Institute for Strategic Dialogue by email at info@strategicdialogue.org or by telephone at +44 207 493 9333.

The professional relationships fostered at Oxford, combined with our leadership programme, are paving the way for a trans-cultural, trans-continental and sustainable network of future leaders. We would be most grateful for your assistance in raising awareness of the Weidenfeld Scholarships and Leadership Programme by circulating this information to relevant universities, networks of students, educational advising centres in your country, and appropriate professional networks.

Yours sincerely,

Anna Schiller
