

SELECTION PROCEDURE

MOOTCOURT

2021 JESSUP INTERNATIONAL LAW MOOT COURT COMPETITION

The competition simulates both written and oral proceedings in front of the International Court of Justice. Teams are supposed to write 2 memorials (one for applicant and one for respondent) and compete in oral rounds in front of judges. This year the competition will be completely virtual and held online.

2021 Topics:

world disease
pandemic and
economical losses,

diplomatic asylum
of a rogue
scientist,

jurisdiction of the ICJ and

shooting down a civilian aircraft

Requirements: excellent English language skills, orientation in and interest in public international law, team work spirit

Apply by sending a motivation letter to lipovsky(at)prf.cuni.cz no longer than by 17 October. You will be sent a link to MS Teams meeting and will present (for no more than 5 minutes) your arguments for applicant in point b) of the 'Compromis' (para. 55) in the following week.

Link to the Compromis/Jessup problem:
<https://www.ilsa.org/jessup-competitors/>

Vodoznak: Stradalova, https://commons.wikimedia.org/wiki/File:L410_UVP-E20.jpg

Vojenská

vozidla:

https://commons.wikimedia.org/wiki/File:%E8%94%A1%E7%B8%BD%E7%B5%B1%E8%A6%96%E5%B0%8E33%E5%8C%96%E5%AD%B8%E5%85%B5%E7%BE%A4_02.jpg

軍事新聞通訊社