

Public International Law MOOT COURT SELECTION PROCEDURE

PHILIP C. JESSUP INTERNATIONAL LAW MOOT COURT COMPETITION

---

This year the competition will be completely virtual. The teams will write two memorials (one for applicant, one for respondent) in a fictitious scenario and will subsequently plead in oral rounds in front of international judges and compete against other teams.

TOPIC:

human rights on the Internet, data theft, the secession of part of a nation's territory, and foreign elections interference.

REQUIREMENTS:

student status of the PF UK, excellent English language skills, passed International Law Course, team work abilities and dedication to work.

Apply by sending a motivation letter and CV to lipovsky@prf.cuni.cz till September 28.

The selection will be in a form of a short moot on the topic of the competition.
